

Sinclair should have the right to air anything they think is right. they should not air something that is lewd or disgusting.....but they should be able to air thier opinions. The movie stars use the airways to promote their candidate be them democratic or republican.....